1. Status, inventory and security deposit / bond

An inventory is included in each apartment

The customer should verify the accuracy and quality of the inventory upon arrival and report to reception any discrepancies, missing or damaged items, proper functioning of the appliances and health condition. Otherwise, the property will be deemed in good condition.

At the departure of the customer, inventory and the cleanliness of the apartment will be checked by VIP SA and loss of inventory or damage caused to the apartment will be billed to the customer.

A deposit is requested upon arrival of the client.

During the stay, the client is automatically liable for anything broken or damaged, for any loss or disappearance of furniture utensils, linens or other decorative element available in the apartment.

2. Rules of Procedure and obligation of a resident (client)

Rules of procedure are displayed in each residence and the client must be aware of and respect those rules. The number of people occupying the dwelling may not exceed the capacity of housing rented, failure to comply will result in the immediate termination of the lease by VIP no damages can be claimed by the customer.

It is formally forbidden to make noise after 22h00.

For bunk beds, the upper beds are not suitable for children under 6 years.

None of the objects installed in dwellings should be moved to another dwelling. Any object moved from one apartment to another will be considered missing and the object's full value will be detained on the bond.

3. Disclaimer

Responsibility for VIP SA can not be held liable for theft or damage to personal effects in the apartments, including the lockers and common premises, car parks and any other outbuildings or annexes to the residence.

4. Check-in

If the tenant checks-in before 16.00 there is a possibility that the apartment is not ready for use.

If this is the case, the tenant should address himself to the VIP office, within 45 minutes after the check-in in order to inform us. Otherwise he accepts the accommodation as it is found.

The tenant must declare all damages in the apartment within 24 hours to the housekeeping department. The tenant is responsible for all damages caused during his stay and must pay for these before departure.

In case of an emergency or in case of repairs that need to be carried out in the rented object, the VIP housekeepers have the right to enter in the rented object without specific permission of the client.

Domestic animals are not allowed in 4* and 5* stars apartments and chalets. If this rule is not respected, VIP SA has the right to assign another apartment or chalet (without refund)

For the rental conditions, the law as applied in the contract holder's home country is applicable.

VIP will determine the jurisdiction of the concerned country.
